Depart your home city for Paris

Make sure to book a flight which will arrive in Paris by midday on the 29th. This will allow you to arrive at the hotel, get situated and be ready for our first short orientation stroll from 3:00 – 5:00 pm. NOTE: Air transportation and airport transfers are NOT included in the package price and are the sole responsibility of the individual traveler.

Sunday, October 29 –

Arrive Paris

Arrive in Paris by midday and transfer to our hotel. From 3:00 – 5:00 pm join us on a leisurely stroll around the islands in the middle of the Seine where Paris began over 2,000 years ago. You'll walk off your jet lag and see some of the city's iconic sights like Notre Dame Cathedral, Saint Chappelle and the Conciergerie. At 6:00 pm join us for a welcome reception in the hotel followed by a group dinner at a local historic restaurant.

Monday, October 30 –

St-Germain-des-Prés

This morning we'll introduce you to the marvelous Left Bank neighborhood around our hotel. Saint-Germain-des-Prés offers the quintessential Left Bank experience: art and antique galleries, historic cafés, gourmet chocolate and food purveyors, and boutique shopping that's unsurpassed in any other section of the city. We'll share fascinating tidbits about the many writers and artists who've called this neighborhood their home and point out little known shops and eateries that we're sure you'll love. At midday we'll treat you to lunch at an upscale art nouveau restaurant in the Latin Quarter. The afternoon is free for shopping, sightseeing or museum visits. Dinner tonight is on your own. We can recommend some charming bistros and cafés if you like, or you can set off to discover a memorable spot on your own.

Tuesday, October 31 –

The Right Bank from the Louvre to the Opera

Today we'll explore the monumental Right Bank. The Louvre museum and Tuileries garden, the opulent Place Vendome (Site of the Ritz Hotel), and the crown jewel of Belle Époque Paris: the Opéra Garnier. You'll be our guest for an elegant lunch near the Opera. Afterward we'll escort you to the two "Grands Magasins" (Great Department Stores); the Gallerie Lafayette and Printemps. If department store shopping is not your cup of tea, go exploring – there's so much to see and do on the Right Bank. Perhaps you'll join us for a late afternoon cocktail at the legendary watering hole, Harry's New York Bar? Dinner tonight is on your own. Let us know that morning if you'd like us to make a reservation for you for supper or recommend a great little wine bar.

"We'll always have Paris."

ITINERARY (Cont'd)

Wednesday, November 1 –

The Marais Quarter & Dinner Cruise on the Seine – One of the most historic and vibrant quarters of the city, the Marais was once the home of 17th-century aristocrats. After three centuries of decline it was resurrected in the latter half of the 20th Century. It's now a mecca of modern-day Parisian culture, cuisine and art. During our walk we'll visit the City Hall of Paris, the Tour St. Jacques, from whence great medieval pilgrimages began, and the oldest square in Paris: Place des Vosges. The afternoon is yours for more shopping, sightseeing or sampling the Café Culture that is such an intrinsic part of the Paris experience. Tonight you'll be treated to a marvelous dinner cruise. You'll see the illuminated monuments and churches that line the banks of the Seine as you enjoy a wonderful multi-course dinner with wine.

Thursday, November 2 – Paris at its most elegant:

From the Madeleine to the Eiffel Tower

This morning we'll visit some of Paris's most iconic monuments and grandest boulevards. From the Madeleine church and the gourmet food purveyors that surround it, we'll visit the city's largest square, Place de la Concorde. From there we'll stroll along the grandest and most famous boulevard in the world, the Champs Elysées, and peek in its luxury shops. Next is the Arc de Triomphe, monument to Napoleon's victories and site of France's Tomb of Unknown Soldier. We'll conclude the morning at the Eiffel Tower. If you'd like a memorable splurge, make reservations for lunch at the Michelin-starred Jules Verne restaurant on the second level of the Tower; pricy but worth it (Contact us to help with reservations). In the afternoon there are so many things that await you – perhaps a visit to Napoleon's Tomb or the Rodin Museum, or the Impressionist paintings at the Musée D'Orsay or the Orangerie. Admission to all these places is included with your Paris Museum Pass. Tonight is on your own – perhaps you'll take in a classical concert in a centuries old church, or sit in on a jam session at one of Paris's famed jazz clubs. We can help arrange all this and more.

Friday, November 3 –

The Palace of Versailles

This morning our private motor coach will drive us to the legendary palace of the Sun King, Louis XIV. You'll be given a private tour of the palace and grounds by our English speaking guide. You'll see the public rooms and private apartments of the kings and queens, including the ill-fated Marie Antoinette. You'll also see the breathtaking Hall of Mirrors (pictured to the left) and the incomparable royal chapel. After a walk through Versailles' vast manicured gardens we'll return to Paris in the early afternoon. You'll have plenty of time for sampling the city's charms this afternoon. Make sure to reserve an extra special café or bistro for dinner tonight. We can help with some wonderful recommendations. After dinner, perhaps you'll want to visit a cabaret, go dancing, or have a night cap at the George V or Ritz hotel?

ITINERARY (Cont'd)

Saturday, November 4 –

One day left and there's still so much to do.

Saturday is the day to tie up loose ends - return to the shop where you've been contemplating a purchase all week, or pick up that gift for someone special. It's your last chance to have a Café Crème on the sidewalk terrace of Les Deux Magots or Café de Flore. Or if you've been putting off your rendezvous with Mona Lisa at the Louvre, now's your chance.

For those who'd still like to explore with us, this morning Debbie and I will head to the hilltop enclave of Montmartre. We'll visit the huge white wedding cake cathedral of Sacre Coeur and take in the vistas of Paris from its steps. We'll walk around this quaint neighborhood to see the haunts of the great painters like Picasso, and Toulouse-Lautrec who lived here at the end of the 19th century. And we'll nibble and nosh at a few of the many patisseries and food shops along the way.

The afternoon is yours, or if you'd like to continue on with us, perhaps we'll pay a visit to Pere Lachaise cemetery or go on a crawl through some of the famed 19th - century covered "passages" that lace the Right Bank. There are so MANY options!

Tonight we'll host a farewell dinner at a historic upscale restaurant.

Sunday, November 5 –

Depart Paris

Breakfast at the hotel then check-out and transfer to Charles de Gaulle Airport for your return flight back home.

Bon voyage et à la prochaine!

EXTEND YOUR STAY?

Some of our travelers like to arrive a day early in order to get over their Jet Lag and to have an additional day in the City of Light. Some travelers like to add an additional day or two to the end of our event. If you'd like to do either of these, let us know IMMEDIATELY when you make your booking. Additional hotel nights beyond our seven-night block are subject to AVAILABILITY. The sooner we can let the hotel know, the better our chances to add that extra night to your stay.

Depending on rates in effect at the time of booking, you may need to pay a slightly higher rate for that night or book a different category of accommodation. Either way, we'll be in close communication with you in the booking process to work out an agreeable arrangement for the additional night(s) if you wish them.

ADVENTURES IN THE CITY OF LIGHT

HOTEL MADISON

4 STAR COMFORT IN THE HEART OF SAINT-GERMAIN

There is a vortex in every great quarter of every great city; a place where the all the action seems to swirls around. The intersection of Blvd.Saint-Germain and Rue Bonaparte is such a spot. It is the hub of literary, social and commercial life in the Saint-Germain-des-Prés district.

Hotel Madison occupies a coveted position overlooking this historic corner, with views of the eupinimous abbey directly across the street. The old axiom, "Location, location, location" could not be more appropriate. One step outside places you right in the center of the very best of the Left Bank.

The Madison's guests enjoy modern, comfortable accommodation which includes a delicious buffet breakfast and a serve-yourself wine bar in the lobby. Coffee and pastry are also available in the wine bar. Two Metro subway lines within a block of the hotel conveniently whisk visitors anywhere in the city. There are also taxi stands and bank ATM's immediately outside the hotel. In short, The Madison is an ideal spot from which to explore the City of Light.

ABOUT US

“If you are lucky enough to have lived in Paris as a young man, then wherever you go for the rest of your life
it stays with you,
for Paris is a moveable feast.”

- Ernest Hemingway -

A quarter century after a middle-aged Hemingway uttered these lines I found myself fresh out of college, alone and broke in Paris (Not unlike the young Mr. Hemingway 50 years earlier). That first madcap week left me hopelessly and irretrievably hooked on La Ville Lumiere. In the intervening 40 years and 30 return visits Paris has indeed stayed with me, holding me and taunting me with all that I have yet to discover.

Over the years friends began asking me to help plan and eventually to host their trips to the French Capital and various spots on the Continent. Thus was born what has become my vocation and passion: sharing Europe in general and Paris in particular; its culture, history and joie-de-vivre.

More than just a moveable feast, Paris is also a moving target. Keeping up with its ever evolving trends and fashions is a full-time job. Just monitoring the restaurant scene is a daunting task, but one I relish.

In 2000 I found a kindred spirit in my wife, Debbie. A longtime Pan Am Airline employee, Debbie has always had the travel bug and together we live and lust for the next adventure in the City of Light. I'm the history buff and logistics guru and Debbie is the shopper, social chairman, and glue that binds us to all our travel companions.

We hope you will join us for the next Moveable Feast,

Mike and Debbie Westra

OUR PHILOSOPHY:

We operate on the “UnTour” principle. We place you in an upscale hotel in City Center, provide travel tools like subway and museum passes and city walking tours, sprinkle in a few marvelous meals at historic restaurants, and lots of free time for you to explore and make your own magic. You can take part in our daily outings or spend the day on your own, shopping, wine tasting or picnicking in the park. Either way, we're at your service to assist with dining, sightseeing and shopping recommendations.

Traveling with Mike and Debbie Westra will quite simply provide many of the best memories of your lifetime.

Steve S. - Santa Maria, CA

I can't say enough great things about our trip to Paris. Mike and Debbie went out of their way to make adjustments for us when we arrived a day late, and their hospitality and generosity continued throughout the week. Everything was planned perfectly, and there was a great degree of flexibility when we wanted to tweak the agenda. The accommodations could not have been better. The walking tours were so informative and thorough, without being boring. The group dinners were exquisite. Mike's vast knowledge of the city and abundant recommendations made it easy to get the best experience possible during the week-long trip. I would definitely travel with Mike and Debbie again in a heartbeat!

Meredith R. - Columbia, SC

We cherish the memories of the trip we took with our dear friends. Mike and Debbie Westra were our hosts and tour guides. They amazed us with their knowledge of the cities and surrounding areas. Mike arranged everything with such thoughtfulness and attention to detail from spectacular hotels to boat tours and amazing & unique restaurants..... He and Debbie did it all. They gave us a carefree adventure tailor made for us. We hope to travel again with the Westras at the helm.

Susanne P. - Langley, WA

We had 2 of the most incredible tours that anyone could imagine; the first was to Paris & London, the other to Central Europe. Mike and Debbie were the main reasons. Their attention to detail left nothing to worry about, from the walking tours to amazing food and the great hotels. I truly believe that they put together one of the best values available.

Boyd and Cheryl, - Wichita, KS.

In 2012 we took the trip of a lifetime with the Westras as our guides. We had the most wonderful experience. Mike and Debbie did all the planning; beautiful hotels, wonderful meals, etc. Mike has traveled in Europe since he was a young man and is very knowledgeable. He knows the people, history, and how to get around. They are good because they love it so much.
