

For all the melodies that ring
From our sweet dulcimers we bring
To all the music that we sing
We thank thee Lord.

And all the birds that sweetly sing
For ev'ry beauty nature brings
We thank Thee Lord.

For our family who give fresh starts,
For all our children in our hearts,
For all our friends though we're apart,
We thank thee Lord

For Mother Nature's great bounty
Whose amber fields we reap plenty
For purple mountain's majesty
We thank Thee Lord

For the miracles in each day;
Moments that take our breath away.
Hearts dance, leaves swirl, the stars display.
We thank Thee, Lord.

From deep inside we use our gift.
The sounds we make give us a lift.
Through memories and songs we sift,
We thank Thee, Lord

For all our families this day.
For all your blessings now we pray;
We praise your name and humbly say,
"We thank Thee, Lord."

For good friends who round me ring,
For the blessings that they bring
As they put their hands to string.
I thank you, Lord!

For good friends who gather round
Bringing forth the sweetest sound
For all the blessings that abound
We thank you Lord!

For all the friends who gather near
For all the tunes we love to hear
For the strings ringing loud and clear
We thank you Lord!

Jane Willeman

For all the cats and kittens so meek
They all give joy, your love they seek
God has blessed them with love so sweet
We thank thee, Lord.

Dave Kludy

For happy memories of times long past
And present friendships that will last
For dulcimer friends that strum "Half-Fast"
We thank thee, Lord
