

TX Freedom

Division of WAKA - The Colony

Issue 2
Week 2 of 10
Spring 2012

Chuck Norris doesn't play kickball in the dark. Not because he is afraid of the dark, but because the dark is afraid of Chuck Norris. When Chuck Norris enters BB Owens kickball fields, he doesn't turn the lights on, he turns the dark off.

AWARDS

James

The Rookie to Ace Award
Congratulations to our "A", James Kuzski, on starting off not-so-great and improving to catch anything and everything for the whole three innings we got to play!

Bill

The Kick and Whiff Award goes to Bill Langford, Co-Captain of Team WRS, for posting up our team's first strike-out.

Daisy

Female Alter Ego...and Best Dressed Award
Run Run Run! - This week's MVP goes to BT and his alter-ego Daisy. She was able to get on base then score from first on the next kick. I've never seen her run so quickly! Is Daisy the new "Natalie"?

Ashley

Kick and Walk to First Award
For kicking a single in which she walked, ran, then walked again to first without getting out. CONGRATS Ashley, you still got it. Also—great fingertip catch in the outfield!

Blake

Best Free Agent Pick Award goes to Blake for his speed, athleticism, ball gripping man hands, and knowledge of the sport. His ability to give our team runs almost calls for an anti-diuretic.

Robyn

The Baddest Be-otch Award goes to Robyn for catching the final out and placed the cherry on the cake. She pretty much said 'suck it boys' to HIB.

Richard

Bend it like Beckham Award goes to Richard 'Fancy Foot' Ancheta! With quick thinking and mad foot-work skills, Richard (at Pitcher) didn't waste any time reaching to pick up a grounder, with one swift kick he plowed it in a straight line to first for an out!

Michael

Most Valuable Player Award
Goes to Michael for catching the third out in the bottom of the fourth inning to keep us (LKBD) ahead of the game, 2-1.

VS

We started the game a little nervous since our competition looked like they just got done with P90X and could crush a beer can with their forearm. Thankfully we started off fast and got a couple of runs early on to take the lead. Thanks to HIB throw back Nelly Jams we were able to get in a groove and found ourselves staying ahead just enough to pull off the win.

HIB played 99 Problems and unfortunately came out with a loss but even in loss we had a great time as we still had good company, friends and a really loud speaker.

With R Selves®

VS

Our Game with Mayhem was definitely entertaining. The game was a competitive pitchers dual for both teams. With R Selves Combo Pitching Staff Greg "Don't Call me Feliz" Morris and Casey "I Think I am Roger Clemens" Starr helped hold Mayhem to only 2 runs. Offensively, Jeremy Cate, Son Nguyen, and Jana Miller all were clutch when it counted –with Son and Jeremy scoring With R Selves' only two runs: both on must needed offensive strikes, and Jana with a single when it counted. Overall, today was definitely not Co-captain Bill Langsford's day offensively posting With R Selves "First Strike-Out of the year" on a huge "Epic Fail" of a plate appearance. Way to go, Bill!

Win, lose, or draw, Mayhem once again has proven that they are the dirtiest team in the league. Between Shawn and Eric, four face to face meetings with the hard ground were scheduled and attended. Along with the gravity-induced faux pas', some great plays and effort were also on display. Jess blew out a quad while legging out a single and even dragged her gimpy leg all the way to second. David, with Cy Young-like pitching skills recorded a rare KSO (kickball strike out). The all-out effort and quick vertical to horizontal trips netted team Mayhem a hard fought...tie.

The score ended in an epic tie 2-2. With Mayhem scoring 14 runs in the previous week this was definitely a confidence booster for Team WITH R Selves. Yeah we are MF-ing Awesome!

VS

Not sure if it was the weather, the mini practice before the game or the extra vodka in our team drink but whatever it was it worked and LKBD secured a win over the very talented SOP. Now I am sure they felt "robbed" due to the fact that the lights went out the top of the 5th as an excuse for the loss but we really did bring our 'A' game.

SOP came into the night's game confident and ready to kick with the ladies newly bedazzled/painted/glittered shirts! That's not to say that LKBD weren't ready for payback from last season. LKBD started with a go-ahead run in the first inning, and held a steady defense against SOP when there were runners on third or second. Although the lights ended the game early, LKBD regained the lead in their final at-bats and went on to win the game. Afterward at the bar, there was a lot of glitter sharing from the SOP and molestation of Daisy.

VS

To all the ballers out there with ladies to impress, It's easy to do just follow these steps:

One, step up to the box.
Two, put your leg in the box,
Three, let them pitch in that box,
And that's the way you do it.

It's my kick in a box.
My kick in a box, babe.
It's my kick in a box,
Ooh, my kick in a box, girl.

Kickball, kick in a box.
Rugby House, kick in a box.
BB Owens bathroom, kick in a box.
Every single location—a kick in a box.

Refin' ain't easy! Have you read rule 14.02.B lately? It says "you're out!" Not sure if you were aware but ducks have night-vision, so we could have played in the dark!

POOLBALL!

Same Pool rules...but your body is the cue.

St. Patty's Parade + Tailgate

Saturday, March 17
10am-?
Lower Greenville

Come see WAKA's very own float in the annual Parade. The whole city of Dallas will be partying and drinking green beer, so don't miss out. After the parade we will head to a Kickball bar (possibly Dyer Street Pub) for some discounted drinks and food. Check the event on the TX Freedom facebook page.

WEAR GREEN WEDNESDAY

Accent your team uniform with as many of your gaudy green St. Patty's accessories as possible to the March 14th game.
