

HOCKEY AFTER HIGH SCHOOL?

Your youth hockey career doesn't end with graduation. Through the American Collegiate Hockey Association (ACHA), you can continue playing well into college by joining one of the 450 club teams at colleges and universities nationwide. Enjoy hard-hitting games featuring 30 ACHA teams right in your backyard during the 2012 ACHA Men's Division II Showcase, taking place October 5-7, 2012 in Rockville, MD.

Join us during the competition for two College Showcase Seminars, where league administrators, coaches, managers, and players will offer first-hand advice and information on opportunities available after high school.
