SOP's "win out" mentality was in full force against the poor Balls and Dolls team on Wednesday. Even with allegations of taking steroids/juicing up (btw HIB, thanks for the hook up! ) in preparation for the game, SOP did not let it take a toll on their emotions. It was a solid victory and a blast for everyone. In bar games, we were able to beat out the Bojangles on the last toss by a point and take back to back wins in bar games!

yeah yeah yeah yeah yeah yeah

I think we did it again
 We tried to make you believe we're more than just friends
 Oh baby
 It might seem like we could crush...the ball
 But it doesn't mean that we're serious
 'Cause to lose all our senses
 That is just so typically us
 Oh baby, baby

[CHORUS:]
 Oops!...We did it again
 We played with the ball, lost in the game
 Oh baby, baby
 Oops!...You think we won't win
 But playoffs are soon,
 We're not that innocent

Coming off of a great week last week, Balls and Dolls didn't fair so hot this game against SOP. We had some great team plays and some people that had never even made it to base were running the field, but in the end we were outplayed and took the loss. But don't worry... new themes of distraction to come!!

Well the stars weren't in our favor once again, with limited players and the heat bearing down KLBD was no match for HIB. As always we came out, had fun and did our best. Kudos to the players that were able to make it out.

HIB manager Chris Sutton watched as Aaron Andrews kicked the long ball, and knew that's about as far as he could kick it. "That's Aaron Andrews," Sutton said. "That's why you spend countless hours in the gym."

Nick, Robin, and Chris each had two kicks and Aaron Andrews drove in 4 runs on two grand-kicks, and HIB beat LKBD 6-0 Wednesday night to snap a piss poor offensive performance the week before.

Amanda Rottman, a speedster, ran so fast again that she is now 3 for 3 on slip and falls. "I don't see any reason why she can't fall in every game," Tae Kim said. "Shes got cleats but chooses not to wear them." :)

"My cleats don't match my short shorts," Rottman said. "You gotta look good, in order to play good."

Colin Pugh also added a kick to the stat sheet and even opened up his bunting abilities to show hes a not just a power kicker.

"Even though you only see me working out Chest and Arms with Coach Sutton, I can still kick the short ball," Pugh said. "I workout like Arnold but that doesn't mean I play like Arnold."

Weston Rodgers went back to his typical offensive ways going 0 for 1 and had it not been for his stellar defensive double play he would have been scolded by Coach Sutton. "I was really close to lambasting him, but decided not to after he made that double play, consider yourself lucky."

Last night was also Khadija Quadri's last game of the season. It was a extremely emotional game and the team said their final fairwells. "To think she worked her way up in the ranks from Equipment Manager to an HIB All-Star," Coach Sunni Lockovich Said. "I molded her to be the all-star that she is today and I'm so proud of her. You will be missed."

"Of course they are sad," Quadri said. "You just don't lose one of the best players and assume your going to win ballgames :)."
 But seriously KG, you will be missed. Good Luck in Tulsa.
 At the bar Kiley showed all the members of HIB a new way to take pictures called the Suck and Tuck. "Vogue," said Kiley. "Vogue."

GAME NOTES - TAE KIM STRUCK OUT.

NPIT broke their tying strike on Wednesday after barely falling short to Mayhem 2-1. NPIT's first loss was a little hard to take, especially after giving it almost all we had and sweating up a storm. Thanks (or maybe no thanks) to Casey's Gatorade vodka we were barely able to stay hydrated and give Mayhem a run for their money. Defensively we made a couple of errors but Eric "The Machine" made up for them with his super double play and "almost" stealing home. Greg was on fire with his pitching and catching, which accounted for all three outs in one inning. Ronda made a pretty clutch catch and Jeremy and Bill had some nice chemistry (oh, hey). But perhaps the most impressive show of the night was Mark's shorts (or lack of). Sorry if you saw more of Mark than you ever wanted to!

WEEKLY MVP

Naomi, Candice, & Amanda

"The Battery" – Naomi/Candice for only letting one run get past them in their inning of work as the pitcher and catcher.

Amanda – For getting her scored run of the season!

KG

Most likely to succeed award goes to KG for leaving us to start law school in Tulsa. We'll miss you.

Matty G & Michelle

The most competitive guy on the field award goes to Matty G. His inner Hulk comes out on the field before he shows his real passion---the bar---this week.

Michelle gets the award for being a solid catch anywhere she plays on the field. She is such an asset!

Suzi

Dedicated Player Award goes to Suzi Q, although she has a bum knee she makes every game, tries her best and it's a ton of fun!

Tyler & Dominique

Our MVPs this week are Tyler and Dominique! They made a beast mode catcher and first baseman team and were responsible for most of the outs in the game. Way to go guys!

Eric

Eric "the machine"
Not only did he bag
a double play and
almost steal home,
but he also was our top scorer in shuffleboard.

Jessica

Mayhem's "Momma Made It" award goes to Jessica Trevino! This dedicated player and mommy was determined to keep us from forfeiting for lack of female players. Jess rushed to pick up her little girl, get ready, and then head all the way to the game... She made it on time, in the 107 degree temp, with daughter in tow,
and never complained once!
