Empty Bowls 2.0

Choose the bowl you want, take it to the cash register, receive a receipt for your donation & bring the receipt to the farmers market between 9 and noon on Saturday, July 14th, to get your lovely dessert.

The WIC program at the market provides $10 in coupons each week to WIC families to buy market produce, meat and eggs. WIC (Women, Infants and Children) is a government program that provides limited help to low income pregnant and new moms and children up to age 5 years 1 month to help children eat well enough to develop strong healthy bodies. For example, it provides $8 a month to buy a child produce. In Missouri, WIC can only buy food at grocery stores, not at farmers markets.

Our thanks to Phoenix Fired Art, the many potters who contributed, and to all the restaurants, other businesses, organizations & individuals who make this project a success.

More bowls are available at the Webb City Farmers Market through Saturday, July 14.
