

roof

house body

window: outer

window: inner

These template pieces are printed WITHOUT seam allowances. If you're working with felt, cut along the solid line. If you're working with quilt-weight cottons, use a larger piece of fabric to wrap around the template, iron and steam to shape, then remove the template before stitching down. Window shapes are sized and designed to be machine appliqued using a satin stitch.