- Calling agents from signs without buyer agent representation
- Underestimating the market
- Viewing properties that are incompatible with their loan conditions
- Getting distracted by "great deals" that don't fit their needs
- Waiting until offer time to get pre-approved by a lender
- Missing out on "the one" due to hesitation or unpreparedness
- Acting on advice from well-intentioned non-experts
- Losing money or missing opportunities by not knowing all of their financing & buying options
