"WITH A WALK INTO HIS CLOSET, HIS THOUGHTS TOOK HIM DOWN A LONESOME DESERT ROAD, FAR, FAR AWAY IN OLD MEXICO... MY NAME IS SKIPPITO FRISKITO. I FEAR NOT A SINGLE BANDITO!"

Skippyjon Jones, Judy Schachner

Skippyjon Jones is a Siamese kitty with a HUGE imagination. When Skippyjon looks in the mirror he doesn't see a little cat, he sees the fearsome "El Skippito," his mask wearing, sword-slinging, bandito-fighting, alter-ego.

Just like Skippyjon, we all have larger-than-life heros inside of us. What does your inner hero look like? Do they wear a cape or a crown? Tights or a magic robe? Do they fight with a sword, a sling, a wand or a well-placed word? Can they fly? Can they run super-fast? Go on and...
SHOW US YOUR INNER HERO!

- Winners will receive $25.00 watchung booksellers gift certificates and 100 copies of the bookmark with their illustration. Winning designs will be used on store bookmarks.
- Honorable mention entries will receive $10.00 watchung booksellers gift certificates and will have their designs displayed in the store.
- Entry form available as of April 2st at watchung booksellers or on our website at www.watchungbooksellers.com.
