"An Appeal To Heaven"

I have seen this Flag recently and I love what it stands for. I do pray for our Country and that it turns from the ways that it has been going in and I know that God is the only one that can revive it and turn it around.

This is a Free Chart for you to stitch and share with your Family and Friends, and I ask you to search the internet to learn about the flag and the times that George Washington was living in and how they reflect on our times today. Here is a quick note for you on what I pulled together.

The "An Appeal to Heaven" flag was the first flag of our nation and was flown by George Washington's navy in 1775. It was also flown throughout the colonies during the Revolutionary War as a declaration that their only hope was in the God of Heaven. The phrase "An Appeal to Heaven" implies that when all resources and justices on earth are exhausted, only "An Appeal to Heaven" remains.
