

Identity: Royalty Journaling Prompts

How do you experience the presence of God?

What do your royal robes look like?

Does your arrival somewhere change the atmosphere? In what way?

How do you talk about yourself? Would you say those things to other people about them?

Have you experienced disappointments in your Christian walk or prayer life? Are you backing off because of these? What can you do to change this?

What steps are you being called to take by God?
