

The Mid-Atlantic Center for Children's Health and the Environment

A Pediatric Environmental Health Specialty Unit

Pediatric Environmental Health
Parents
Providers
Other Resources/Links
Services
Tutorials
Events
About Us
Contact Us
Home

GWU - Tutorials In Environmental And Occupational Health*

Tutorial Evaluation

Documents on this page are PDF documents. Download the free Adobe Acrobat Reader.

ISSUES	HAZARDS
ASTHMA Asthma: The Issues Tee L. Guidotti, MD, MPH	LEAD (Pb) Lead Poisoning Jerome A. Paulson, MD
CLIMATE CHANGE Climate Change: the Implications for Child Health Tee Guidotti, MD, MPH	SOLVENTS Toxicology of Solvents Tee L. Guidotti, MD, MPH
ENVIRONMENTAL JUSTICE Environmental Justice Tee L. Guidotti, MD, MPH
RISK ASSESSMENT Risk Assessment: A Conceptual Introduction Tee L. Guidotti, MD, MPH
RISK MANAGEMENT Risk Management: A Conceptual Introduction Tee L. Guidotti, MD, MPH
TOXIC HAZARDS, RISK COMMUNICATION

Toxic Hazards & Risk Communication Tee L. Guidotti, MD, MPH
WWW The Use of the Internet for Children's Environmental Health

* The information on this website should not be taken as medical advice, which can only be given to you by your personal health care professional.

THE GEORGE WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY MEDICAL CENTER
WASHINGTON DC

© 2003 MACCHE, The George Washington University Medical Center

Environmental Justice

Tee L. Guidotti

The George Washington University
Medical Center

Health Disparities

- Health and environment: medical model
 - most “environmental” diseases are rare and result from specific toxic exposures
 - common disorders may be aggravated by environmental exposures but then are usually not recognized as “environmental” disorders
 - more subtle environmental disorders are hard to document and harder for society to accept
 - “environmental sensitivity” and other junk science has complicated this