Erin sent you a copy of our proposed ruling in this matter. Both the trainer and owner have been very cooperative. Mr. Carter said he would make arrangements to send the horse to Tom Amoss.

Violation Declaration: In the Ninth Race on July 15, 2014, Trainer Alex Clarkson, acting as an Authorized Agent on behalf of Owner Larry A. Carter, filed a claim for the 8YO gelding "It Happened Again". Pursuant to IHRC Rule #71 IAC 5.5-6-1 (a), for a person to act as an Authorized Agent the person shall obtain a license from the Commission. While Mr. Carter had provided the required appointment of Mr. Clarkson as his Authorized Agent, Mr. Clarkson did not complete and pay for his Authorized Agent license. In addition Mr. Clarkson filed another claim on behalf of Owner Susan J. Heberton, which is not permitted under IHRC Rule #6.5-1-4 (f) which states: "Owners utilizing the same trainer may claim different horses from the same race."

Based on the information before them, the Stewards have ruled the claim of "It Happened Again" is hereby voided, Mr. Carter is ordered to return the horse to the previous owner, Maggi Moss and the Horsemen's Bookkeeper is directed to refund the amount of the claim along with applicable taxes to Mr. Carter.
