

Dear Client,

If you decide not to continue with your ongoing coaching sessions after you have prepaid for a number of them, you are entitled to cash out and be refunded for the remainder of any unused sessions, provided that you notify me of your decision via e-mail, text, or postal service, within 30 days of the last coaching session attended.

Failure to notify me of your decision to discontinue your coaching sessions in the manner and within the timeframe established herein, will result in the non-refunding of the monetary equivalent of any unused sessions.

This 30-day money back guarantee applies only to regular, ongoing prepaid sessions purchased at the published rate.

Mutually agreed upon discounted sessions (considered on a case by case basis), special offers, and seasonally discounted promotions and programs are exempt from this refund policy, as they are offered and sold as non-transferable and non-refundable.
