
JEFFREY C. IGNALL

- PROFILE
- Dedicated, resourceful, and goal-driven professional making a career change to teaching driven by a desire to help the social and academic development of children.
 - Superior interpersonal and communications skills to foster meaningful relationships with students, staff and parents.
-

- EDUCATIONAL PHILOSOPHY
- Educational philosophy rooted in the belief that learning is an individual experience.
 - Professional and personal experiences provide strong foundation to develop lessons that will create motivation and breed success.
 - Teaching style embodies a guided discovery approach that provides the flexibility needed to address all learning styles and abilities.
-

- CERTIFICATION
- New York State Childhood Education (Grades 1-6), Initial Certificate Pending
 - New York State Social Studies (Grades 7-12), Initial Certificate Pending
 - Both certificates will be issued in time for the 2011/2012 school year.
-

- EDUCATION
- Hunter College (January 2010–Present), New York, NY: MS in Childhood Education, June 2011
 - University of Pennsylvania (1988-1992), Philadelphia, PA: BA in Economics, 1992
-

- EXPERIENCE
- TEACHING
- Daily student teaching at P.S. 101 (Spring 2011) in 2nd and 4th grade classrooms.
 - Developed and taught daily lesson plans that included a high degree of differentiation and technology integration.
 - Developed assessment tools to tailor instruction based on student results/needs.
 - Promoted a classroom environment that fostered accountability and respect.
 - Weekly Fieldwork at P.S. 364 “Earth School” (Fall 2010) in a 4th/5th grade classroom.

PROFESSIONAL

- (November 2008-January 2010) –traveled and completed applications for masters program in teaching.
 - J.P. MORGAN CHASE (April 2000-November 2008): various positions, most recently Vice President – Asset Management
 - ING BARINGS LLC (FORMERLY FURMAN SELZ LLC) (April 2000-November 2008): Research Associate – Media & Broadcasting.
 - RESERVOIR CAPITAL CORPORATION (March 1996 – March 1997): Assistant Vice President – Portfolio Underwriting
 - FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF MARYLAND: (May 1994 – March 1996)
-

- EXTRA
- Strong computer skillset: SMART Board, Excel, Word, PowerPoint and web research.
 - Kids Ride Club Ride Leader (2007-current)
 - Extensive (cycling) travel experience can be utilized to enrich classroom experience.
 - Played lacrosse in high school and college – open to coaching opportunities.
-

- PORTFOLIO
- Portfolio and more information available at <http://jeffignall.blogspot.com/>
-