

Nur Çağlar

*Prof. Dr. Nur Çağlar, has been teaching architectural design, design concepts in urban landscape at Gazi University, Faculty of Engineering and Architecture, Department of Architecture since 1992. She studied architecture at Ankara State Academy of Engineering and Architecture, Department of Architecture. In 1986 she received her M.A. degree in 1992 and Ph.D. degree from Landscape Architecture Department at Ankara University. She studied for her PhD in Landscape Architecture Department of Wageningen Agricultural University in the Netherlands between 1988-90. She has initiated and coordinated the international students and professors exchange activities in her Department. Chaired the 19th Conference of EAAE in 2001 and edited the proceedings book Re-integrating Theory and Design in Architectural Education. EAAE Transactions on Architectural Education No 11.*

She has initiated the international architectural design workshops week entitled Winter School in her department in 2003. Winter School has been held as an annual activity since then. In 2006 Winter School has supplemented in the curriculum as an international elective course module and every year a sum of hundred students from various Turkish and European Schools of Architecture attend the Winter School Studios.

Nur Çağlar has conducted many research projects in national and international level such as Erasmus projects focusing on architectural design issues generally expanded to an urban dimension. She continues her practice in architectural design competitions which she enters with a different team of designers who are her studio partners and/or students. She has won a number of prizes and mentions.

She conducts a post graduate course on architecture and city related issues in literature. She has national and international publications on architectural design education, linguistics and architectural space theories and concepts of urban landscape, literature and architecture in journals and books.

TOWARDS A NEW ARCHITECTURAL IDENTITY

reflections on the architectural fabric in the age of globalization international seminar - 20, 21, 22 May '09