

Oral History Interview: Preliminary review Sheet

Name _____

1. Time period or event that you have selected to focus on and why you selected this topic
2. Person you have identified to interview; why is this person going to be able to help you better understand the time period
3. What research/reading do you plan on doing prior to the interview (be specific, articles, books, videos, etc)
4. Submit at least four open ended questions you plan on using:
5. What format have you selected for the interview? Do you anticipate any problems with this format?