jOURney to inspire, a gala for teens creating change- Sunday, March 17, 2019

- A gala for 500+ teens at The Fillmore.
- This is a unique event designed to inspire five hundred (500) high school student attendees from the DC metro area to become more involved in their communities, either through Devenio programs and events or something that they are personally connected to.
- The gala is being planned FOR and BY high school students and is the only event in the area open to all school's students to attend.
- Fundraiser- silent auction, dinner, dancing and speakers for teens.
- Teens raise funds for Devenio programs and events, and are then given Devenio Dollars to bid on silent auction items at the gala.
- The planning committee consists of a team of twenty-eight high (28) school students from twelve (14) different public and private high schools.
