

Online Missionary Application Details

You need to be at least 18 years old, have reliable Internet access and agree to check your email every 1-2 days. You will be asked to write out a simple Gospel presentation. Online Missionaries should be Christ-followers for at least one year.

When you apply, you will be asked for your contact information, and to describe your journey with Jesus. You'll also need to provide the e-mail address of two spiritual references.

When your spiritual reference is received, your application will be fully evaluated. You'll be notified when you are approved, and an experienced leader will train you and help you with any questions you may have.

You will be asked to review the online training materials (taking 30-60 minutes) and let us know when you've done so.

You will then be placed in a training community and will begin responding to 5-7 live contacts per week. Your Training Community Leader will monitor your progress during this 4-week period, and will help you with any questions you may have.

Upon successful completion of your training, you will be placed in a regular community, and be a full-fledged Online Missionary. You will be contacted by your Community Leader who will help and support you on your journey as an Online Missionary. It will be a blessed experience for you.

Become an Online Missionary

You can help change the world from your computer

Two million people a day conduct spiritual searches on the Internet. Our Web sites provide easy-to-understand straightforward presentations of the gospel in multiple languages. Seekers come from every nation on earth with a great desire for God.

Why reach the world for Christ as an Online Missionary?

How many people can I share Jesus with? How can I be a part of a pioneering ministry that's reaching hundreds of thousands for Christ a month? How can technology be used to share the gospel?

People need Christ all over the world. As an online missionary, you can share your faith with people through email.

Jesus came and told his disciples, "I have been given all authority in heaven and on earth. Therefore, go and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit.

Teach these new disciples to obey all the commands I have given you. And be sure of this: I am with you always, even to the end of the age." (Matthew 28:18-20)

Millions Search for God Online

Every day, millions around the world are seeking spiritual truth. Hundreds of thousands daily encounter the gospel via a GMO evangelistic site. And each person who indicates a decision for Christ (or has more questions) can submit his or her contact information. One of our trained volunteers then sends them a personalized response.

Make an Impact; Share your Faith

GMO provides thorough training, personal guidance, and plenty of resources to help you in your responses. You'll never be left on your own. As you spend just a few minutes a day, you will make an eternal impact on people around the world. And serving as an Online Missionary will help you be more confident and better prepared to share your faith with those around you.

Testimonies

Meet Ayanda, Norah, Timothy and Lizette. Their stories are different, but all now have a personal relationship with Jesus and their lives have been transformed. Each found a website from Global Media Outreach as they searched for information about Jesus on the Internet. Perhaps they came to the Internet because it is the only safe place for them to seek God. Or they have decided to follow Jesus and need to know the next step. Our online missionaries are there to help them.

Ayanda

"I have recently made the decision to follow Jesus Christ. All I can rightfully confirm right now is, I don't remember in all my life a time when I've felt this good, I'm so happy and it's coming from within, so I know it's real. It feels like he's in every part of me. I just find myself smiling and grinning for no reason. It's a bit difficult especially with the life I used to lead, but I read new scriptures everyday to help me grow in faith. I think I came very close to self destructing, but I'm happy that God has shown me the way in time, and saved me from myself. I'm so hungry for the Word, and all I want is to get closer to God and obey him and speak, walk and live by Faith. I'm grateful for this website because it just shows how many people out there serve this living God, God Bless all of you and it feels amazing to be a part of this righteous family."

Norah

"I would like to witness how Jesus has changed my life. I fear nothing as I used to be if confronted with problems. Joy and peace of mind fills my heart. I am deeply in touch with Jesus through constant prayers. I feel strong to face worldly challenges and I am at peace." "I would also like to thank you for your spiritual lessons that have enriched me in my spiritual thirst. May the Good Lord Bless you for the wonderful work you do to help others get to know God."

Timothy

"I was born in Hindu family, yet as a child, there was never peace in my mind through reading and going to temple. In 2003 I learned about Jesus, but not clearly. I want to know Him deeply. When I saw your web site, I felt happy. I want some information about the Bible. I taken strongly decision like Jesus."

Lizette

"I have had a difficult life growing up. I would go day by day thinking there should be more to life. I felt alone, drifting away from God, but I still had that hunger for Him. That's when I came to your site. I wrote you guys and I got a reply and that has made such a huge difference. Now I know I'm not alone, my new friend (online missionary) is helping me to stay strong. I know now with everything that has went wrong in my life there was a reason for it."
