

Invitation

You are cordially invited to attend the panel discussion on

Economic Ethos: *would a Universal Basic Income for All be sufficient?

Drinks will be served

Thursday, 29 June 2006 - 12h45 - 14h30

International Labour Organization – ILO Room *tbc

Panellists include:

- Lisinka Ulatowska, Ph.D., Association of World Citizens, Author of 'A Self-financing World Marshall Plan'
- Jean Laville, Deputy Director of the Ethos Foundation <http://www.ethosfund.ch>
- Dominique Peccoud, Special Adviser for Socio-Religious Affairs, International Labour Office
- Very Rev. William McComish, Emmaüs Foundation, Chair of the Geneva Spiritual Appeal Group
- Augusto Lopez-Claros, Chief Economist and Director, Global Competitiveness Network, World Economic Forum

Moderator: Astrid Stuckelberger or Elly Pradervand

Rapporteur: Astrid Stuckelberger or Elly Pradervand

This panel will elaborate recommendations that will be addressed to the High-level segment ECOSOC meeting at the United Nations in Geneva starting 3rd of July 2006. More information will be found on the following website.

www.ngocongo.org