

REVELATION LESSON 33 HANDOUT

TYPE OF DEATH	REFERENCES	NOTES
Physical Death	2 Cor. 5:8; Phil. 1:21; Luke 16:22; Luke 13:11; John 11:43	Believer: Soul & Active spirit leave body. Unbeliever: Soul & Dormant spirit leave body In some cases, this is a temporary death. Not to be confused with the Temporal Type of Death.
Spiritual Death	Eph. 2:1 & 5; James 1:15 Rom. 5:12, 6:23	No relationship with God at all. No fellowship with God at all.
The Second Death	Rev. 20:12-15	Perpetuation of Spiritual Death into Eternity.
Positional Death	Rom. 6:1-14; Col. 2:12, 3:3	This is being Identified with Christ in His death.
Temporal Death	Luke 15:24 & 32	Temporal death is used as a euphemism for “separation.”
Operational Death	James 2:26; 1 John 3:14; Eph. 5:14; 1 Tim. 5:6; Rev. 3:1; Rom. 8:6 & 13	This is applied to believers, those who are saved. They have backslidden and are said to be “like the dead” or in a “Spiritual Coma or Hibernation.” They cannot be said to be spiritually dead as that would indicate they are lost – which would go against the Doctrine of Eternal Security.
Sexual Death	Rom. 4:17-21; Heb. 11:12	The inability to procreate.

Please note the Miracle of Raising Jairus' Daughter is not a TRUE case of Resurrection according to Christ Himself in Matthew 9:24, Mark 5:39 and Luke 8:52 (see below). She must have been in a type of coma. While “sleep” is used by Christ in John 11:11 to refer to Lazarus' death, He explained such (John 11:14) but the case is different here, Jesus Himself plainly states she is NOT dead but is asleep. While many commentators claim that Jesus used the word “sleep” as a euphemism for her death, this would indicate a blatant contradiction of words. Thus, I do not place this miracle as one of the Resurrections but rather this Raising of Jairus' daughter is a miracle for she was raised out of a coma-like “sleep.” If Jesus had NOT raised her, she would have been buried alive and died being sealed in the tomb.

Matthew 9:24 He said unto them, Give place: for the maid is not dead, but sleepeth. And they laughed him to scorn.

Mark 5:39 And when he was come in, he saith unto them, Why make ye this ado, and weep? the damsel is not dead, but sleepeth.

Luke 8:52 And all wept, and bewailed her: but he said, Weep not; she is not dead, but sleepeth.
