

Welcome to the 9th edition of Write On.

This Issue:

- New Book
- On the Internet
- Writers' Guild
- Next New Book
- Tok Save

New Book

Included with is newsletter is a complimentary copy of our newest book, Josiah – Chain Breaker. I would love to hear back from you what you think of it.

On the Internet

Guess what? All the Write On newsletters are now on the internet. I opened a website with the name Creative Biblical Writing. You can find it through “Google” or other search engines, or type in:
www.creativebiblicalwriting.blogspot.com

Writers' Guild

There have been some discussions about registering an organization for PNG Authors. These are sometimes called Writers' Guilds. I will not be taking the lead in this, but I will gladly support whoever wants to work on this. If you have any thoughts and ideas and experience in this area perhaps a small group could be formed to carry it out.

The Registration of an Association is fairly easy, but some thought needs to be put into it what the goals and purposes and functions of the association should be. I would be glad to hear from any of you on these things and perhaps something could be started soon.

The Next New Book

We are ready to send the next book to the printers. It came out of the workshop at Goroka. It will be a great book!

A story from 2000 years ago in another land, yet it reads like a story of today that we can all relate to.

Tok Save

I will be going to USA, Lord willing, at the end of June and be there for a year. I remain available to assist with your writing projects. I might be back in October for some weeks to assist CBM in sending out a new printing order. If you don't get a Write On before then, we will send one out at that time.

I can always be reached through my permanent email address:
Reggie@RedeemerLivesMinistry.org

Enjoy the Josiah book and continue to Write On.

Thank you and God bless.

Reggie Howard Digicel: 7133 0387