RULE OF THE WEEK

See the full list of rules at www.Kickball.com/rules

Kickers must kick the ball from behind home plate, inside the kicker's box. When a ball is kicked in front of the plate, it is a FOUL ball.

ALL foul balls kicked in the air that are caught are OUTS.

Q: What kinds of Foul Balls can be caught for an Out? May runners tag up on such Outs?

A: All of them, except for when the ball touches a foreign object such as a fence first (13.02h). Other fouls, including kicks on or above the knee (13.02e), balls touched more than once by the kicker in the kicking box (13.02f), and balls first kicked outside the kicking box (13.02g) MAY be caught for outs. Runners may attempt to advance a base as long as the pitcher does not have possession of the ball on the mound.

TEAM

MVP'S

Tatonka Garcia

James Jerry "Tatonka" Garcia is MVP. Holding the highest percentage of Native American blood in his veins, Tatonka herds the rest of us buffaloes to the game each week and ensures we're in proper fielding position. His incessant, motivational, insightful shouts of "Don't let it go over your head!" to the outfielders almost helped us win the game. Julie deserves props for filling in at catcher during her birthday week, and Katie should get several "WOOT, WOOT!!!"s for getting on base THREE times.

*Thank you to BBP for being fun competitors and thank you SOP for the bullsake jello shots and nosebleed first aid kit!

Capt'n Matt Helms

Capt. Matt Helms - tireless leader of the Son of Pitches. We are recognizing him not for his efforts this week, but his weekly efforts to keep this ship know as SOP sailing. He may not be the best looking, or the smoothest talker, or snappiest dresser, but dammit he's our Captain and we wouldn't trade him for all the coolers of kickball punch in the world.

"V" and Jade

Clever Catcher goes to "V", being a catcher is no easy feat especially with the numerous bunts in our league. So thank you V for being fast on your feet and taking on one of the hardest positions on the team.

Hurt but Here to Cheer goes to Jade because even though she couldn't play she came out to support the team, THANKS!!!

Pitch Please!

Justin "Retired Jersey" Regan

Pitch, Please! MVP award goes to Justin "Retired Jersey" Regan. Justin gets this award not only because he voted himself the MVP of the game before the game even started but Justin is now the Bruce Jenner of the new age. Justin has so many MVP trophies that he has to move into a bigger house just so he can remain off of the hoarders show and still be able to accommodate all of his trophies. Mr. MVP scored twice and hit a in-field home run to help Pitch, Please! defeat the "forfeitters". For all you people wanting to see how great Mr. Olympia really is, you can go to the sports complex and take pictures of his retired jersey that is now hanging at the field. Great job this week Justin and Pitch, Please!

TEAM

MVP'S

Izzy

MVP for his speed around the bases to score the walk off run. Izzy!!!

Samantha

MVP= Sam for her amazing catch in the outfield and cutting off the possible extra runs due to wild throws to Bill at first base!

Shashin "Cape Man" Patel

Shashin "cape man" Patel wins MVP for not only wearing the cape loud and proud but for also strutting pink antlers in a non homo way. Shashin leaves us at team McFaddens as this was his last game. The man that was not afraid to show his legs off with a pair of daisy dukes or wear a Mexican shirt to show his love off for the Spaniards. We'll miss ya buddy enjoy the east coast!

Jackie Fobbs

Balls & Dolls MVP of the week goes to Jackie Fobbs for her graceful moves on the kickball field and her lack of panties on the dance floor. This smooth combo landed her in the hospital with a set of crutches!
