

Dear Lee Jefferson,

With the regard to the request above we do not hold information on building closures that have occurred as a direct result of reduced Government funding. The operational assets that have been declared surplus to Council requirements and subsequently sold are as a result of an ongoing effective asset management strategy. Such a strategy considers multiple factors before deciding on the future use of Council assets.

https://www.whatdotheyknow.com/request/council_building_closures_since_119