

FAITH & MARRIAGE EQUALITY

AN EVENING WITH BISHOP GENE ROBINSON

SATURDAY, SEPT. 27, 6:30-8:30PM
CHRIST CHURCH CATHEDRAL

Gene Robinson, the first openly gay bishop in the Episcopal Church and current fellow at the Center for American Progress will spend an evening at Christ Church Cathedral discussing the past, present and future of LGBT rights with a specific emphasis on the scriptural and theological foundations of marriage equality.

The evening will also feature representatives from area LGBT advocacy organizations, opportunities for people of faith to network for education and advocacy for marriage equality in Missouri, and a chance for clergy to stand up and pledge to officiate at same-sex marriages once they are legal in our state.

THE EVENT IS FREE AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC.

Christ Church Cathedral is on 13th Street between Olive and Locust next door to Central Library.
