I've heard about your Florida Homeless Bill of Rights

Campaign and am anxious to join. I have been fighting the mayor and three city commissioners of Fort Lauderdale since November 2014 when they passed totally restrictive and unfair laws aimed at one group of Americans and their caregivers. Those are the homeless and the laws are ones that no fair-minded American can possibly obey.

I've been cited three times thus far, but continue to break the law every Wednesday at 5:30pm when we feed the homeless on Fort Lauderdale's Beach. We shall continue to break the law every Wednesday until the laws are either rescinded or amended to coincide with the privileges and responsibilities that every other American enjoys. I know of no other group of Americans who live by a separate set of laws. None of us do, and so I continue to fight for equal rights to be enjoyed by all of our homeless friends. I speak for myself and The Maureen A. Abbott Love Thy Neighbor Fund, and and will join you vigorously as long as my health will allow. I wish you great success in your efforts and as we all know, love wins.

Sincerely,

Arnold P. Abbott
