

Franz Ferdinand Newspaper Article (10pts)

For this assignment students will work with a partner to create a newspaper article discussing the assassination of Archduke Franz Ferdinand and his wife. Remember that depending on the country this article was printed in there would be a different side of the story presented. For this article you and your partner will pick one of the major countries involved in this issue and write an article representing their point of view on this issue. The article will contain a write up on the assassination and a story on Gavrilo Princip as well. You will be given a template to use for this article and are responsible for filling it in with the news stories.
