RE: JZK, Inc. v. Coverdale, Thurston County Sup. Ct. No. 12-2-02241-8

To whom it may concern:

This letter is accompanied by a subpoena duces tecum in the above referenced matter. I have also enclosed an order for preliminary injunction issued by the Hon. James Dixon on November 14, 2012. The Plaintiff in this matter seeks information directly relevant to identifying the individuals responsible for disseminating Plaintiff's proprietary materials and information. The nature of Plaintiff's proprietary interest in the disseminated materials and information is reflected in the enclosed order. Due to the absence of publically available information, the Plaintiff is unable to positively identify the account holder(s) through any other means and is reliant on your assistance in this matter.

As you will see, the accompanying subpoena does not request the contents of any email messages or other communications sent to or from the users described in the subpoena. If you construe any requests made herein to be protected by any applicable laws, or you are for other reasons unable or unwilling to comply with the request, please contact me directly to discuss the matter.

Due to the perishable nature of the originating IP address logs, we respectfully request that you make every effort to expedite this request to avoid the deletion of extremely important IP address log evidence held by the yet to be identified originating ISP.

Sincerely,

Andrea McNeely
Attorney
