Mishpatim

Moses came and told the people all the words of YHVH and all the rules.

And all the people answered with one voice and said,

“All the words that YHVH has spoken we will do.”

And Moses wrote down all the words of YHVH.

From Exodus 24:3-4a, ESV

The following assignments are for older students. They should be very mindful of grammar and spelling. Later in the week, they might try their hand at writing the passage from dictation and comparing their work to the original. Some extra writing projects are also suggested.

Grades 4-8

Copy Exodus 24:3-5 into your notebook.

Would you be willing to join with the people and say that you will obey YHVH? Write how you would feel to be standing in that crowd of people.

Copy Luke 7:22 into your notebook.

Grades 9-12

Copy Exodus 24:3-5 into your notebook.

Would you be willing to join with the people and say that you will obey YHVH? Write why you think that YHVH is the god to listen to and obey.

Copy Exodus 24:15-18

If Moses kept a journal of his time on the mountain, what might be in it? Try writing some of Moses's thoughts and feelings while he was on the mountain.

Read Jeremiah 34:8-22.

Copy:

"You recently repented and did what was right in my eyes by proclaiming liberty, each to his neighbor, and you made a covenant before me in the house that is called by my name, but then you turned around and profaned my name when each of you took back his male and female slaves.”

Hebrew words for the week:

English	Transliteration	Hebrew
Daughter	baut	TB
Slave	ebed	DBG
Horse	soos	XfX
Child	yeled	DLI

We write these on the dry erase board every day and practice reading and writing them. We keep a running list of our Hebrew vocabulary, and try to use them in our daily conversation.
