Letter to George W.

Dear George Washington,

I feel that it is not fair that the colonists aren't paying their taxes. Taxes are like payback for the wars we are fighting for you. We have been defending you from the indians. Is that not a reason to pay taxes?

I feel that it is a divine right that I am King and you should pay your taxes. The high prices are reasonable. Again, we are defending you. Please stop the tar-feathering.

Sincerely,

King George
the 3rd

DEAR GEORGE Washington.
I am writing this letter because I AM telling you that where not going to lower TAXES!!! IF you ask why, it's Because I want more MONEY! plenty of Money Fighting in America for the good of the colonies. The crown was still supporting a British Army to help stop Indian Attacks on the American Frontier. It was Great Britain's Right to collect payment!

Dear King George, Britain is giving the Sidisons too many taxes. We do not agree with your rules.

The Sidisons are getting mad about the double taxing. They are taring british officers and poking goose feathers into them. "No taxation without representation" As the law says.
You should stop the taxing or you will start a war.

George Washington
