

Day 24 Photography

Starting Point:

How important are photographs to you?
Do you take lots of photographs? What do you do with them all?
Which photographs are you most thankful for?

Quote:

When people look at my pictures I want them to feel the way they do when they want to read a line of a poem twice.
Robert Frank

Bible Verse:

Oh give thanks to the Lord, for he is good, for his steadfast love endures forever! Psalm 107:1

Technique Challenge:

Use the gesso transfer technique to transfer a photo onto your page.

It also works with gel medium if you haven't got any gesso. Remember that you will need to print out a reversed image especially if there's words in the image. I have done this with an inkjet printout but it does work better if you get a laser print or photocopy.
