10-24-18: Ecuador won't help Assange with UK talks

According to RT, Ecuador will "no longer intervene on behalf of Justin Assange in talks with the UK over his exile status." This means that he can potentially be extradited to the U.S. Ex-President Rafael Correa of Ecuador, said that, because Assange is now an Ecuadorean citizen, Ecuador has an obligation to protect him. But US lawmakers have demanded that Assange be handed over to "the proper [American] authorities" for espionage charges. Correa believes the UK will hand over Assange to the US, despite the fact that the U.N. has maintained that Ecuador that it has an obligation to protect Assange.
