

The Still Life

an oil painting workshop with Charles Young Walls

January 13-16, 2011

Thursday evening demonstration

6:30 pm - 9:30 pm

Friday - Sunday 9:30 am - 5:30 pm

$325 members / $375 nonmembers

The Thursday evening demonstration will be open to the general public for a $20 fee.

Open to all levels, this workshop will challenge those who attend to develop a painting using a logical and progressive approach, to paint directly without drawing or an under-painting. Utilizing the still-life, the focus of this workshop is to inspire the student to move forward into a more satisfying way of handling paint - to gain control of the rich medium of oil paint with confidence and understanding. Informative and passionate, Charles approaches art instruction by addressing visual principles and the material power of technique to equip the student with the skills to fulfill their own artistic vision.

Charles Young Walls was trained at the Art Students League and the National Academy of Design, both in New York City. He is an experienced art instructor with many years in the classroom. His paintings have won national awards and he was recently featured as one of Southwest Art Magazine's "21 Over 31" in 2009.
