RULE OF THE WEEK

See the full list of rules at www.Kickball.com/rules

here they are again:

PLAYOFF RULE VARIATIONS:

Playoffs follow WAKA tournament rules., which vary only slightly from regular season rules.

Procedures To Break Season Ranking Ties

If, at the end of the regular season, two or more teams in the same League finish with identical Win Percentages, the following steps will be taken until a winner is determined:

- 1) If the tied teams played each other during the season, the team with the better head-to-head record receives the higher rank.
- 2) If the tied teams did not play each other, or if the result of criteria #1 is inconclusive, the team with more overall wins during the regular season receives the higher rank.
- 3) If the tied teams have the same number of overall wins, the team with fewer total runs allowed during the regular season receives the higher rank.

Determining Home Team

Throughout all Tournament games, the higher ranked team has the option to choose Home or Away status. Captains do not RPS to determine Home status.

Game Play

- 1) If the top of an inning is played, then the bottom of the inning must also be played for the inning to count (unless the Home team is ahead – see Rule 7.01c).
- 2) The length of games is 45 minutes.
- 3) All games shall consist of 5 innings, time allowing, unless falling into the below categories:
  - a) At the end of the third inning or at the end of any full inning thereafter a team up by 12 or more runs automatically wins the game and the game is over.
  - b) In the event of a tie score after 5 innings, extra full innings shall commence until a winner is determined or until the allotted time expires. Each extra inning should be played with these modifications:
    - ☑ Place the last kicker (1) from the previous inning on second base
    - ☑ Only 8 players on the field for the defense consisting of 4 men and 4 women
    - ☑ All kickers start with an unmodified count (0 balls, 0 strikes, 0 fouls)
- 4) If the game is still tied when time elapses, regardless of the number of innings played, play must stop and a winner must be determined using the Rock/Paper/Scissors procedure. RPS shall be played out as follows: 3 representatives from each team shall pair off and play head-to-head best 2 out of 3. The team that wins two rounds of these pairings shall win the kickball game and advance in the tournament.

TEAM

MVP'S

Kevin, Julie, & Amanda

Kevin "Omaticaya" Mayoux has been our fearless pitcher this season and a fundamental reason why Bojangles finished with a strong, winning record this season. His quick reflexes and strategic pitching has improved this team for the better. Secondly, but definitely not lastly, the awards for this week's leading ladies on our team go to Julie "Dances with Beer" Shalvey and Amanda "Ducky" Garcia. They play competitively, score runs consistently, and scurry confidently on the field when other ladies don't want to leave the cooler and bench. Let's get another win and keep playing into week two of playoffs!

SOP

Thanks to a great team effort we finished undefeated with the #1 seed and made the bar game playoffs. I'm very proud of my team that returned 13 of 15 players from last year and added Suize and Theresa to the defending champs. A special shout out to all members of SOP- Chris Lander, Russell Wenger

Candice Andrews, Nathan Bachus, Suzie Bailey, Lori Gammon, Amanda Hammonds, Josh Hodsdon, Theresa Krupka, Kenny Lumadue, Lisa Onderdonk, Michael Peterman, Brian Thompson, Philip Wood and Matt Helms. Looking forward to another playoff run, let's finish what we started, SOP.

Marty "Rex Kwon Do"

Bow to Your Sensei Award: No more flying solo for these pitches. You need someone to watch your back at all times and that's exactly what this week's MVP Marty AKA Rex Kwon Do did! After one night with him at first base he defended our team with the strength of a grizzly, the reflexes of a puma and the wisdom of a man

You think he got where he is today because he dressed like Peter Pan? Did you take a look at what he was wearing, people? You think anyone else could've totally dominated first base while wearing those bad boys? FORGET ABOUT IT!

Eric "Slick Rick" Schmalzreid

Eric "Slick Rick" Schmalzreid is Pitch, Please! MVP this week. Most MVP's get an MVP for actually doing something during the game, but this week we are awarding Eric for doing NOTHING on the field! He took the game that has never been played in the history of bar games and made it his BITCH. Slick Rick sure knows how to jerk his wrists while hitting the stick. Unfortunately like most guys though, he was one and done. Which is a shame, because it looked like he wanted to stroke that stick all night loooooonnnngggg. However his "one and done" was enough for Wednesday night. He kept it hard long enough and just needed the baby maker to slap it on his stick one time and out popped 4, which led Pitch, Please! to multiply and take home 19 ..... points! Great job this week Eric and Pitch, Please!

Alyson, Chris, and Haley

Princess Alyson for proving royals aren't afraid to run, sweat and take a hit all while wearing a dress and keeping her crown on and Dynamic Duo Chris & Haley for keeping the fields safe.

Kelly B.

Kelly B. our MVP for the last regular season game. Played well defensively and got on base multiple times. Good Job Kelly!

Stephen/Waldo/deadmau5

Even though we didn't play a game, Stephen was ready to intimidate the other team as bluman/Waldo/deadmau5!

TX Freedom Champions

Kickball Offseason: (n) a time period filled with misery and solitude. To be filled with parties and get-togethers until the new season begins.

Spring season won't be back until the end of February, but luckily, we will organize events so that you can see all of your TX Freedom faces in the meantime.

****Please email Sarah Beth at sarahwalsersa@gmail.com if you are interested in joining a party planning committee that will keep the social times going throughout the cold, kickball-less winter. The party planning committee will be in a GroupMe group and will help plan events for the next couple of months. We would like to get at least 10 people on the committee.

It is minimal commitment!****

Hey guys,
I was hoping you'd all help me out. I'm sure most of you know I'm from the Jersey shore (fist pump!), and the hurricane has just destroyed my hometown and many others around it. Houses and businesses and entire boardwalks were washed away, or smashed by trees and boats and telephone poles. My family all still live there, and thankfully they are safe, but there are so many people who lost so much.

I want to take a cash donation and donate money to St. Gregory's pantry: its a church who brings food and supplies to local families in need. My family has been donating to them for years. . This really hits close to home for me as I know so many people who have suffered property damage and total losses. Any thing you can spare would be greatly appreciated by me and the families who receive it. If you can and care to help, I'll be taking donations Wednesday at the game/bdr.

Email me at sgmahle@ymail.com if you have any questions and please bring a little cash if you can!
