MEMORANDUM

Advice

1. Although you do not have to employ a solicitor for the purpose of this proceeding, it is recommended that you consult a solicitor about this matter immediately. However, a company or other corporation that wants to defend this proceeding or appear at any hearing must consult a solicitor immediately because -
  - (a) it can only carry on a proceeding in the court by a solicitor; and
  - (b) it cannot appear to conduct a proceeding except by counsel (unless there are exceptional circumstances).

Legal aid

2. If you cannot afford to meet the cost of the proceeding, you may be entitled to assistance under the Legal Services Act 2000 and regulations made under that Act.
3. The plaintiffs are not in receipt of legal aid for the purpose of this proceeding.

Statement of defence

4. If the last day for filing your statement of defence falls on a day on which the registry of the court is closed, you may file your statement of defence on the next day on which that registry is open.
5. In calculating the time for filing your statement of defence you must disregard the period that commences with 25 December and ends with 15 January.
6. If you file a statement of defence, you must serve it on the plaintiffs and on any other defendant who has given an address for service. This must be done within the same period of time you have for filing the statement of defence.

Counterclaim

7. If you have a counterclaim against the plaintiffs, you must file a statement of that counterclaim in the registry of the court, and serve it on the plaintiffs and on any other person against whom the same claim is made. This must be done within the same period of time you have for filing a statement of defence.

Witnesses

8. Summonses for the attendance of witnesses will be issued on application at the registry of the court.

Registry Hours

9. The registry hours of the court are from 9am to 5pm except on court holidays.
