

The Essentials of Figure Painting

an oil painting workshop with
Charles Young Walls

November 11-14, 2010

Thursday - Sunday 9:30 - 5:30

Fee: $350 + $50 model fee

Intermediate and advanced students only

Throughout this figure painting workshop, underlying structure will be addressed while emphasizing the importance of artistically bringing the figure to life on canvas.

Skeletal study aids of the body and head will be available for aid in observation. Students will concentrate on the sculptural relationships within the figure and selective interpretation on the canvas. In addition to instructor demonstrations, students will enjoy one-on-one attention in a focused group atmosphere throughout the four days of painting the figure from life.

Charles Young Walls was trained at the Art Students League and the National Academy of Design, both in New York City. He is an experienced art instructor with many years in the classroom. His paintings have won national awards and he was recently featured as one of Southwest Art Magazine's "21 Over 31" in 2009.
