

Academic Scholarship – Xtreme Week – LCCC

To apply for an Xtreme Week scholarship a student must have been an active camper at LCCC for four of the five years eligible. The evaluators of the applications will only have the information that is submitted. They will not know the student's personal information and life experiences. Applications will be judged based only on church, school and community activities as well as the submitted essay.

Three $250.00 academic scholarships are available and useable at any regionally accredited college, university or vocational school. All scholarship funds must be used within 4 years of high school graduation or special arrangements must be made with the board (i.e. military service, mission service, etc). Scholarship awards will be mailed directly to the winners at the address listed on the application.

Applications can be found at LCCC.org. Please complete the application and return to:

Kendra Brownell
P.O. Box 194
Kremlin, OK 73753

All applications must be RECEIVED prior to March 31, 2022. Scholarship applications received after this date will not be considered.

The scholarship committee will be comprised of Christians that are 1. – not members of the current board 2. – have no children currently eligible for this scholarship 3. – who have been actively involved in LCCC. These could be former camp directors, existing camp directors, former board members, camp counselors, caretakers, etc.

The scholarship committee will work diligently in the month of April 2022 to score all applications and choose the three winners with the highest scores. Winner notifications will be mailed no later than May 1, 2022 to the address on their application.
