Reflections on the weekend Scriptures

Isaiah 55:10–11; Psalm 65; Romans 8:18–23; Matthew 13:1–23

• “My word shall not return to me void, but shall do my will, achieving the end for which I sent it” (Isaiah 55:11). Given that the average seed yields 7.5-fold, Jesus’ opening prediction of a hundredfold is radically optimistic indeed, especially given last week’s Gospel: rejection by the “wise and learned” with unseeing eyes, unhearing ears, unresponsive hearts. Wouldn’t we settle for average? A few strong, promising plants?

• For that matter, look at us! Very much Jesus’ mixed terrain—hearts trampled by hordes of superficial acquaintances, caravans of tradespeople, armies battling for our limited loyalty. Could anything grow on such a life-weary surface? Think too of those rocky edges of personality, our lack of depth, defying anything or anyone to take root. Thorns of “worldly anxiety,” “lure of riches,” other things we’d rather not mention (Matthew 13:22). Could any living thing breathe, let alone flourish, in the jungle of our hearts?

• But wait! Without denying what unreceptive soil we are much of the time, don’t we sometimes surprise even ourselves by sensing Jesus’ word unexpectedly triggering rebirth within? If even ourselves, then why not the wider Church or even our warring world? In God’s maddeningly patient time, of course, and in God’s hidden, silent way. What if, with Paul, we dared believe that all “creation awaits with eager expectation the revelation of the children of God” (Romans 8:19)? What if we offered our humble efforts, our very selves to Jesus’ work of patient, persevering sowing, and did so with the same spendthrift generosity and daring optimism the Divine Sower lavishes on us?

Question of the Week

What kind of soil have I been this past week? How can I become better soil this week?

Next Sunday’s Readings

Wisdom 12:13, 16–19; Psalm 86; Romans 8:26–27; Matthew 13:24–43

Return on Investment. One thing many are interested in is what is “my return on my investment?” “ You know,

From the Pastor’s Desk

the percentage we receive back for the risk we take in investing both savings and retirement funds. Of course, the higher the return the better...or to put it another way...the more I receive the better I will be able to afford to live, afford better things in life, nicer car, nicer home, better grade of fashionable clothing, better restaurants, and the list goes on and on. To be sure, there is nothing the matter with this, for the Lord judges us not on our possessions but what we accomplish with them in this life. In our scriptures, Jesus speaks of effort producing a varied return on investment of time and seed, even a hundred fold. In other words, by making an investment out of the ordinary, an investment in accomplishing work as Jesus disciple, we are rewarded for the “investment” we make. In fact rewarded richly. Something to keep in mind when we consider what we are going to accomplish with the resources we receive from God freely.

God bless you all Fr. Roger Ministry Opportunities We could use assistance with both readers for Mass and with Acolytes. Could you possible help us? Speak with Fr. Roger/Deacon Noel.

Lead by example and not just by word!

Project Progresses Your parish council has decided to advance plans to finish the property behind the church for a memorial garden and reception area. It will be a great use of the property and add to the beauty of the church. Does anyone has experience or know someone who could assist/advise the Operations /Maintenance Committee in this matter. If so, they can contact Russ Landy by phone (401) 615-9089 or by email barbaralandy36@yahoo.com.

Parish Activity this week

Communications Committee: Monday at 7pm

Meetings occur as scheduled at the church office

All are invited to attend and to participate

Take possession! It's your parish

Gluten Free Hosts This past week, there was some press saying, to effect, that gluten free hosts are not acceptable for Eucharist at Mass. This was nothing new as hosts made from rice flour (gluten free) are not acceptable substitutions. This parish uses "low gluten" hosts for communicants with gluten intolerance. Low is allowable, "no" is not. This is written to clarify existing parish practice only and to remove any confusion.

In Memoriam I would like to thank each of you who have held Fr. Peter up in prayer the past 16 months. It meant a lot to me, to Father and to his sister Diane. Fr. Peter Scagnelli passed away on July 12th. He will be buried next week in Framingham. This picture was one of Fr Peter's favorites and he is pictured with Kinko, who predeceased him. Father quietly made a difference in the lives of countless people and helped priests with his weekly writings being the basis for sermons around the world. He will be very sorely missed. Please keep his sister Diane in your prayers during the days ahead.

Design Help We are composing a mailing piece for distribution. Does anyone have experience with work such as this? Please speak with the pastor.

Bishop Prakash Will be with us again soon as Mariam becomes a US citizen on July 20th. Congratulations Bishop Prakash and Mariam.

Email Reminder Each week, we send out electronically events to everyone on our email contact list. If you do not receive it, it means that we do not have your email or more likely, it would have changed since we recorded it. Please send us an email and we will add you to the list.

Why St. Patrick's Church? Many people are seeking a church to make their spiritual home. When aware of this, a kind word of support for Saint Patrick's can make a wonderful difference.

YOUR invitation can make the difference!

We are accepting of our members and visitors and offer an ideal home to couples of "mixed faiths." Our practice of an open Communion to the baptized sets us apart from others and we offer bible based preaching within Mass.

For many, our parish is the ideal fit
