!!!! MANDATORY REF MEETING !!!!

In order to keep our refs educated, reduce confusion, stay consistent as a league, and keep our players happy, we are having a ref meeting for ALL head and sideline refs. We will discuss basic rules such as strike zones, legal pitches, legal kicks, fair and foul kicks and fair and foul parts of the field, what base to run to and running through first base. We will also discuss field management and maintaining good sportsmanship amongst the players. Players interested in reffing in the future are welcome to attend.

TEAM

MVP'S

Natalie "Dreamsnatcher"

Natalie "Dreamsnatcher" Peticca is one of our strongest and quickest ladies out there. She's never afraid of putting her hands all over the balls that guys lob out in the field. Thanks to Nat, we were able to close out an inning with a couple of Pitch Pleasers on base.

Dear P,P!, We aren't tied for second place anymore, but damn it, P,P!, you guys are a good team! And Justin "Bruce Jenner" on your team is ridiculous. Just ridiculous. In a good way. That's all. We love you!

Russ Wenger

Herbert Russell Wenger. His hair may be thinning and he may have celebrated ANOTHER birthday this week, but he also achieved greatness as the SOP's MVP for this week. Apparently Mayhem's players were scared of their own reflection (off Russ's forehead) as they awaited their dooming pitches. Russ made some cat-like saves with balls swarming towards him and pitched our season's first shutout to shutdown Mayhem. Our old farts keep impressing each week, so I guess they can stay on SOP since WE ARE UNDEFEATED!

Chad "Primetime" Robinson

Pitch, Please!'s MVP this week goes to Chad "Primetime" Robinson. Chad recently switched positions to be our catcher and without any experience he knows the secret sauce to get people out! He had one inning where he was responsible for all 3 outs! Chad, why couldn't you be like Justin and tell the team how good you were going to be before the game so that we could have rested in the dugout for that inning?! Chad is also known for making lightning look slow.

His aggressive base running helped us take the early lead on Bojangles in which we went on to beat 2-1. Good job this week Pitch,Please! And great game Bojangles!

Nate

Normally Nate plays in the outfield but due to shortage of players he stepped up and made some great plays at first base.

Michael

Intimidating the other team with the Imperial March, Michael used the power of the Force for 2 RBIs and caught a ball in left field!

Casey Starr

Casey Starr- kicking an in field home run, almost losing his britches while running bases, and helping seal the victory for the New Pitches.

Playoffs are comin'!

- All teams make it to playoffs.
- Your season ranking determines who you play first and the number of games you must win in order to claim the championship trophy.
- WAKA playoffs use the WAKA tournament rules, which differ slightly from the regular season rules. You can find them HERE. The rule changes mainly affect length of play, tie-breakers, and overtime.
