

Discover and Accept Your Gifts, Power, and Innate Greatness!

Have you ever had TWO highly intuitive, love-centered, experienced, and dedicated spiritual teachers guide you at the same time? In this monthly workshop series with Eldridge and Barbra, you won't be able to hide from your greatness, joy, and divinity!

Where: Song of the Morning, 9607 Sturgeon Valley Rd., Vanderbilt, MI
When: Five powerful and life-changing weekends: October 21 - 23 is the first weekend in the series. January 13 - 15 is the second. Remaining weekends scheduled for April, May & July (Dates TBD)
Cost: $145 for each workshop, with discounted price when package is purchased ($475 for four weekends, $525 for five.) Depending on choice of accommodations, lodging and food cost averages $35 - 55 per night.

Your past decisions intuitively lead to your life path. Your life is important to the healing of the planet. You have a mandate to reveal your soul's gifts on the planet. As you clear the patterns, beliefs, and blocks to knowing your divine identity, your purpose will reveal itself.

You are here to localize that which is cosmic. These retreats WILL help you to claim your purpose as a spiritual being, guiding you to consciously live your life as a beneficial presence on the planet.

Barbra will guide you into clearing limiting beliefs and patterns, setting you free to know God inside yourself. Eldridge will focus you on your true priorities, teach you how to make better decisions, and direct you with practical advice on how to change your life.

This is rare opportunity to attend a five weekend workshop series with spiritual teachers Eldridge Huntington and Barbra White. Weekend retreats offer spontaneous healings and transformations, qi cong, personal guidance from Eldridge and Barbra, self-acceptance workshops, core conscious transformation, and powerful assessment and envisioning processing.

Though not required, it is recommended for a person to attend all workshops, as they build upon one another.
