WEEKLY

WEEK 4 MVP'S

SPIRT aWard

Only once during the existence of TX Freedom has the spirit award been given, and its only fitting that it goes to someone else on the same team. This past Wednesday, Ross Gillum celebrated his 23rd birthday in style. Consuming at least 10 shots, multiple beers, and Michelle's famous punch, Ross had to be escorted out of Red Rock after he attempted to throw anything that wasn't bolted down (cups, menus, chairs, and the planters out front). He followed this all up by sprinting around the parking lot, while claiming "I'm the fastest person in kickball, you're not gonna catch me!" And trying to power lift several cars. After finally being wrangled into the car and taken home, he wandered into the garage and passed out on a pile of boxes. If that's not WAKA Spirit... I don't know what is. Congratulations Ross

BOJANGLES

This week, we have a trifecta of MVPs Valerie Emmett, Ashton Ayres, and Cody Smith. Entering her second season as a Bojangle, Valerie has proven herself to be our teams best bunter and offensive catalyst. Whether she is bunting to move runners around or bunting for a hit, Val always comes through. Our offense has greatly improved with her in our lineup week in week out. She also gets bonus MVP points for recruiting Ashton to our team. Ashton, in back to back weeks, has made some spectacular defensive catches. Whether she's at second base or short stop, you kick it to her, you're out! In her rookie season, she has played with the kickball skills of a 3rd or 4th season kickball player. Cody, had a couple of solid kicks and some outstanding defensive plays as catcher. He did this all on a broken ankle! Fighting through pain and grimacing his way through all five innings, Cody's determination and dedication to the game he loves is greatly appreciated by his teammates! DOLLS and BALLS

MITCH NEELY

MVP for ball throwing in bar Olympics this week. He's good with his hands and accurate with his balls. :)

OG'S OF KICKBALL

KATI HOUSER

Kati was a big part of the offensive rally that help the OG's get their second win. She also made several defensive plays to help us seal the victory!

OOPS... I WAKA'D

Last week there was no stand out MVP, everyone played a complete game. I'm not sure if there was an inning that the bases weren't loaded...several times! Outstanding performance....plus we topped it off with another bar games victory!!

PITCHES BE CRAZY

MOLLY FREITAG

Molly Freitag is our MVP this week for a single and very simple reason - she scored our only run. Molly was our focused product of several sacrificed bunt plays at first base, which was our only successful way to navigate the bases against Alcoballics.

Kudos to Alcoballics for their superior defense from start to end. We will see you again!

REVAMP

CARROLLTON, TX. -- It's almost impossible to win kickball games without a "Johnny Kickball". Our "Johnny Kickball," Wesley Sheridan made multiple plays from third place only allowing 3 kickers on base in a 9-0 route of Brew's Your Daddy.

"We won the game; that's all it's about," co-captain Chris Sutton said. "We want to win a Kickball Championship man, that's our goal."

With an un-blemished record on the line, Sutton pitched another gem by carrying a no-kick bid into the third inning. "I'm pitching the way I'm supposed too. I worked my butt off all year to try to get consistent and get myself where I needed to be," Sutton said. "I feel like it finally paid off."

Matt Helms entered the game in relief of Sutton in the 4th inning and immediately gave up 2 walks. "I just couldn't find my curve tonight. Good thing I had Johnny Kickball there to save me from giving up any runs," Helms said.

"Obviously this is the type of game you dream about as a kid. You visualize when you're 10 years old in your backyard about making big plays when the game is on line. It's pretty exciting to be apart of, Probably the Best Kickball Team in the World," said Sheridan.

Looking ahead into week 5 reVAMP, faces a double-header against the undefeated Bojangles and Pitches Be Crazy. "I know this is Matt Geissler's Super Bowl but for my team, it's just another game," team captain, Tae Kim said. "The Bojangles, GROUPME has probably been blowing up since last Wednesday after a 12-1 victory of their own."

THE BEASTIE BALLS

Cap'n Bliss proudly elects MVPs, Ariel Drilon, Fred Senethavilay, and Brian Senethavilay for making sure The Beastie Balls were represented at the Mid-Season Party!

Look'n good Indeed!

WHERE MY PITCHES AT?

BLAKE RUCKER and STEPHANY LOPEZ

Blake demonstrated why he is a rock star making huge stops on defense and making stellar kicks on offense. Blake played a huge part in our success versus Team Drinkers allowing us to close out this game with a tie against a great team! Cheers Blake!
