

Assembly Instructions

1. Print pg. 2 on cardstock.
2. Print pgs. 3-6 on copy paper.
3. Fold the cover (pg. 2) in half.
4. Fold each inside pg. in half with the pictures on the outside.
5. Trim each inside pg. by ¼ in. on each side but the fold edge.
6. When assembled, the cut edge of the pages will go in the spine.
7. Stack the pages in the following order:
It's Preparation Day!
Today we pick up all our toys.
Today we sweep the floors.
Mommy bakes extra bread.
We all take a bath and dress up.
We set the table very pretty.
We light the candles.
Shabbat is here!
8. Put the pages inside the cover,

again, so the cut edge is in the spine.

9. Put three staples along the edge, you may have to work at it.

10. Enjoy!

My eight year old practices her reading skills by reading it to her younger siblings. It would also make for some lovely informal teaching on prep day for the little ones. Blessings!

For more help and encouragement in teaching your children the Torah, visit the following sites.

www.servinginmyrubberboots.blogspot.com

www.torahschool.wordpress.com

This book was created by Heidi Cooper of

www.servinginmyrubberboots.blogspot.com

Look for more
My Little Torah Books and collect them all!

Use Torah for your home school!

www.torahschool.wordpress.com

May YHVH be praised in all we do, and may our little ones learn to love Him with all their hearts!

My Little Torah Books

By Heidi Cooper
Illustrated by
The little Coopers

It's Preparation Day

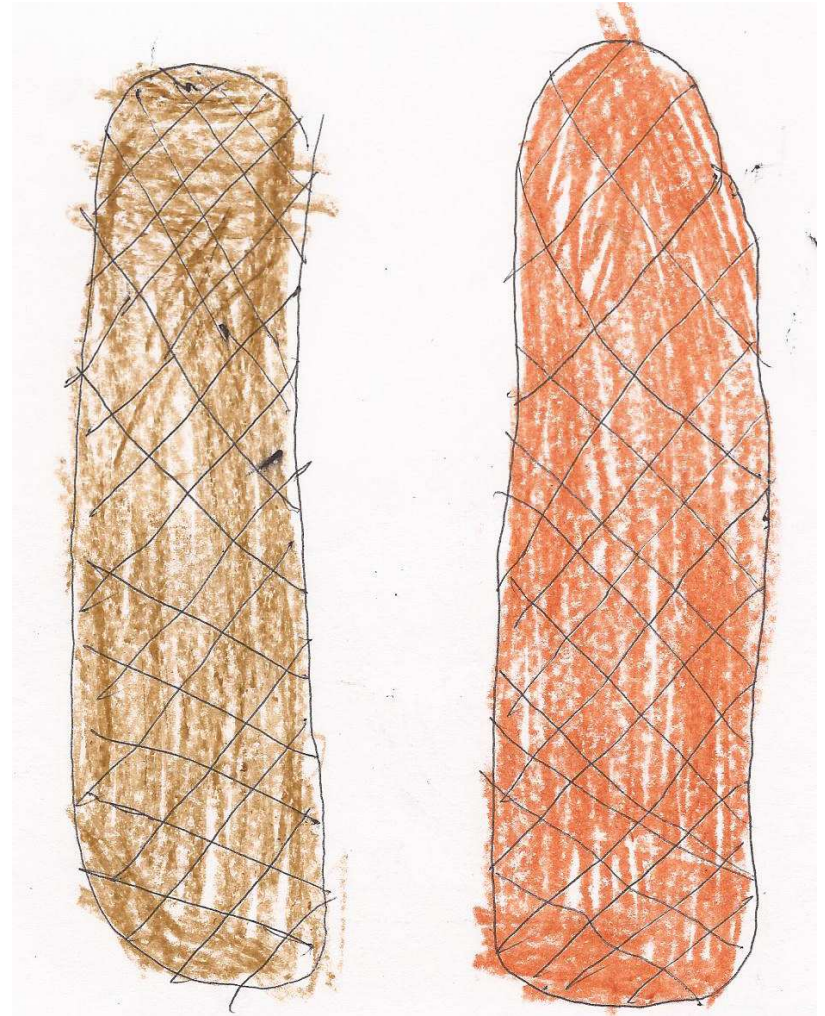

Today is Preparation Day!

Today we pick up all our toys.

Today we sweep the floors.

Mommy bakes extra bread.

We all take a bath and dress up.

We set the table very pretty.

We light the candles.

Shabbat is here!